Thursdays—Mid-May thru November ~ Downtown Kingsburg

Aug. 4, 2008

KINGSBURG—Kingsburg will named an “Idol” in September.

Vocalists are being sought for the Swedish Village Farmer’s Market for Sept. 4, 11 and 18. It’s part of a whole new season for the Swedish Village Farmer’s Market in downtown Kingsburg. Sept. 4 will be the preliminary; Sept. 11, there will be a tribute to the victims of the 9/11 World Trade Center attack (patriotic songs); and Sept. 18 the finale. Sept. 20 as part of the Kingsburg Crayfish & Jazz Festival, the winner and finalist will be presented to the public on one of the stages at that event.

“With the Summer Band Concerts Under the Stars concluded, the Kingsburg District Chamber of Commerce entertainment moves downtown to the farmer’s Market now,” said Jess Chambers, executive director of the Kingsburg Chamber

An exciting array of entertainment is being planned this fall. The Red River Dutchmen will return for an Oktoberfest evening, Oct. 2. Sept. 25, a fashion show in cooperation with My Sister’s Closet and Nixey’s Boutique will be featured. “The Great Pumpkin” arrives for the Oct. 30 farmer’s market. Selma Flea Market is sponsoring that evening to include a prize of $1,000 for the area’s biggest pumpkin, to be determined by the official weight certified at the Selma Flea Market public scales.

Those attending the markets each week are encouraged to bring their lawn chairs and have a seat for the fun each week from 5-8 p.m. through Nov 20.
